TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1868.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

THE CIRCUS this afternoon was a capital one, and worth a good audience.

THE BUTTER MARKET.—There was not near as much butter brought to town to-day as there was last week or the week before, our dairymen preferring to hold it until there is more demand for it. The prices were from 28 to 30 cents per pound, according to quality. Several extra lots, however, sold as high as 32 and 33 cents.

We have had a most refreshing rain to-day, affectingly quieting for the time being, the dust, which, until the rain fell, blinded the eyes of pedestrians, and found its way in superabundance into houses, stairs and offices, to the great discomfort of their occupants. When will the sprinkler again make its appearance?

THE funeral of Mrs. Aldis took place to-day from the Episcopal Church at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Francis W. Smith of Brattleboro officiating in the absence of Mr. Bliss. Bishop Bissell made a few appropriate remarks after which the remains of this venerable woman were taken to the cemetery and deposited by the side of her husband, who died in the fall of 1847, at the advanced age of 77.

THE LAKE BOATS.—The Burlington Free Press says that the Lake boats will hereafter land at the South wharf, instead of the Vt. Central wharf. The morning boat from Plattsburgh will land her passengers at the South wharf at 9:30 a. m., and going thence to the Central wharf will await the arrival of the 10:20 a. m. train.

THE Judges at the Richford races were: James Ryan, J. S. Butler, A. A. Brown, E. Corliss, L. W. Miner.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The Republicans of this County met in Convention at Montpelier on Monday, and put the following ticket in nomination:

Senators—J. H. Orent, Charles Dewey, C. H. Heath; Associate Justices—J. Richardson, C. W. H. Dwinell; Judge of Probate—T. R. Merrill; State's Attorney—M. E. Smiley; Sheriff—Clark King.

THE CIRCUS.—Stone & Murray's Circus made its entrance at about 8 o'clock this morning. The hour was much earlier than expected, and consequently but a comparatively few of our citizens saw the "big teams" drawn for the most part by fine looking horses. The attendance was quite large this afternoon and all present were pleased with the performances. There will be another exhibition this evening commencing at 8 o'clock. The circus goes from here to Franklin.

NEW ENGLAND APPROPRIATIONS.—The New England Appropriations on the river and harbor improvements are: Boston harbor $2,000, Taunton river $18,000, Pawtucket harbor $80,000, Connecticut river $20,000, Westport, Ct. harbor $10,000, New Haven, Ct. $15,000, Portland breakwater, and Saco and Union rivers, Me., $20,000 each, Penobscot river, $30,000, Bath $16,500, and Block Island, R. I., breakwater $47,000.

Close of the Term.

The following communication was received yesterday, but at too late an hour for publication in yesterday's issue of the TRANSCRIPT.

MESSRS. EDITORS: We had the pleasure of being present at the close of our public school on Friday and listening to the exercises in the Hall, and knowing as we do, that the teachers had only three or four days to make their final preparation, we considered it a decided success. To witness the precision, promptness and successful speaking and acting, singing and playing upon the stage, is really complimentary to the ability of our teachers and scholars. Two prizes were awarded for improvement in writing.

At the commencement of the term Mr. S. M. Platt, teacher of penmanship, and Dr. Clark, offered each a prize to the room that should make the most improvement, and keep their books in the best order.

Now Messrs. Editor, it would save you much time could your communications all be as well written and as legible as we there saw. Just think of one hundred and twenty books, and only one that contained an ink blot, or an erasure, and all exhibited such marked improvement as to keep the Judges. (Dea. Wyman and Mrs. E. R. Clark) long in doubt who should have the prizes, but they finally decided to give prize No. 1, a beautiful Chromo, to Miss White's room, and prize No. 2, a beautiful pen drawing in colors, designed and executed by Prof. Pratt, to Prof. Marsh's room.

From what we saw we think highly of the Spencerian system, and of Mr. Pratt's ability to teach it.

We hope our teachers will take courage from this effort, and in future favor us with similar entertainments. "And then may we be there to see."

Vermont and the Campaign.

The gallant state of Vermont is the pioneer of the Republican party in the political contest this fall, and has a work to do which will materially effect the issue of the canvass. The first to lead off in the grand march in which state after state will wheel into column, her duty is to guard as well as lead the front, and remove as far as possible all hindrances to the progress of the grand army which follows her,—to make the way clear, passable and easy. To do this work well, and none can do it better than she can, there must be no hesitation in her face, no uncertainty in her tread, no delay in her action. With the keenness and strength born of the mountains, and with the clear vision which takes in broad prospects from afar, she must contemplate and perform the duty which leads the sure way to victory.

We are glad to say that Vermont is awake to the importance of the position she holds this year, and that she means to perform her part nobly. Our state election is the first to be held in the fall, and we have so long had a majority that the importance of its increase or diminution is not sufficiently appreciated. We are regarded by other states as a kind of political barometer, and as the feeling is here, indicated by our state election, states alike in politics are depressed or encouraged. Thus Vermont has an exceptional importance in politics, not to be lightly estimated. What state is there that does not read with interest the record and resolutions of her State Conventions? The first question of the campaign may well be, "What is the news from Vermont?"

Recognizing the importance of a vigorous campaign in this state, and its sure result in a largely increased Republican majority, a thorough canvass has been resolved upon, and the first war note was sounded in our State Convention at Burlington. We are confident that just such speeches as the clear, business-like, and earnest one of Hon. Treavor W. Park, and the earnest and solid one of Gen. Thomas, made in that Convention, if made all over the state would have a result in our state that would carry confidence and joy to the whole union party. There needs to be some awakening influences at work, and there is good prospect that there will be. A meeting of the State Committee has been called, to be held at the American Hotel, in Burlington, on Thursday, the 9th instant. At that meeting the pioneer work for this state will be decided upon and laid out. We trust that every county, town, and school district, will feel the beneficial influence of the meeting, and that from its action efforts will go out to thoroughly organize and move the party all over the state, so that upon the 1st day of September, when the key note of the presidential campaign is struck, there may go out a voice from Vermont, clear as the cry of eagles.

Personal.

North Carolina University has conferred the degree of LL. D. on ex-Governor Seymour of Connecticut.

Hon. Geo. W. Grandey delivered an address on the Poetry of History, Thursday evening, the occasion being the close of the term of the Vergennes High School.

Mr. Tuckerman, the new United States Minister to Greece, has arrived at Athens and presented his credentials.

An exchange says that Geo. W. Demers, editor of the Albany Evening Journal, creates a sensation at Saratoga, with his fine span of black horses, who are well set off by a heavy gold mounted harness.

The Rev. F. W. Holland, Pastor of the Liberal Christian Society of Rutland, read a paper on the "Rutland County Insurrection," at the monthly meeting of the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston, on Wednesday last.

Z. E. Jameson of Irasburg accepts an invitation to deliver an essay before the Farmer's Club at the next State fair.

Russell R. Dorr of Center Rutland was one of the speakers at the prize exhibition at Union College on Wednesday evening last.

Among the more distinguished men on the platform at the recent commencement of Union College, were ex-Senator Harris, Bradford, R. Wood, of New York, John Newman, D. D., President of Ripley Female College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Judge Campbell, Judge Potter, Rev. Dr. Backus, Rev. Dr. Van Veghten, E. C. Delavan, Wm. Tracy, James Brougham, Judge Charles Nott, Geo. W. Smith of Troy, Judge Sprague of Canajoharie, and Gen. John Taylor Cooper of Albany.

Rev. Geo. T. Riordan, Catholic Pastor of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, died on the 15th inst. He was a brother of the late Rev. Father Thomas A. Riordan, of Fairfield, Vt. formerly of Burlington. Thurlow Weed is very low, and apprehensions are entertained of a serious result.

"Will wonders never cease?" is the uniform exclamation of the million who constantly use "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." One bottle will convince the most sceptical of its marvellous effect upon the human hair.—Norfolk Virginian.

EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:

I notice by your valuable paper that the Record takes my little suggestion hard, and winds up by calling me names. Of course I cannot condescend to contradict the assertion that I am silly, and lack perception. If the Record would only reflect, it might be led to see, I hope, that we cannot all view things with the same eyes; and would perhaps grant the same charity which I have extended to its remarks upon me. If I doubt the truth of some things which I see in print, am I therefore to be consigned to Mr. Van Amburgh's show of Wild Beasts? I confess I cannot see the pertinence or propriety of the Record's suggestion. It seems to be a little irritated.

Respectfully yours,

AGRICOLA.

WILL EXHIBIT AT

ST. ALBANS, MONDAY, JULY 27.

THIRD ANNUAL TOUR

GREAT METROPOLITAN INSTITUTION

Permanently established during the greater portion of the year in a splendid Iron Edifice in the City of New York, which is well known throughout the country as the

Leading Circus of America

And which, the present season, with its

NEW AND MAGNIFICENT FEATURES,

Never before presented in America, will be enabled to offer entertainments of marked originality and exciting interest, far surpassing anything hitherto witnessed on this side of the Atlantic. The public appreciation of the performances given by the New York Circus, not only in the City of New York, but also during its former Summer Excursions, has stimulated the management to renewed exertions, and it is confidently asserted as beyond the power of contradiction, not only that the performances of the Troupe during its present tour will be found superior to any ever given in this Country,

But that the company is in all respects

THE BEST IN THE WORLD!

There being no Equestrian establishment in all Europe comprising so many first-class artists, or so many entirely novel and strikingly effective specialties as this. First season in America of MISS CAROLINE ROLLAND, the Phenomenal Equestrienne, who surpasses the most daring feats accomplished by other lady riders on a pad upon a horse without saddle or bridle! This extraordinary artist was engaged in England at enormous expense by an agent sent thither for the purpose of securing the best lady prior to Europe, and only arrived in this country in April. Her astonishing performance upon a horse-back showed into the shade all previous displays of female Equestrianism seen in the United States and cannot be paralleled in any exhibition in Europe or America. Included in the brilliant array of World Renowned Artists Attached to the New York Circus will be found the names of Robert Stickney, the Great American Bare-back Rider; the Conrad Brothers, Champion Gymnasts of the World; William Dutton, the Intrepid Somersault Rider, with his infant son, Arthur; the Banville Family, who have no equals in any country in the Classic School of Gymnastics; El Nino Eddie, the Boy Wonder, who although a mere child, surpasses Blondin in difficult feats upon the Tight Rope; Herbert B. Williams, the greatest of English Clowns, engaged in London expressly for the present travelling season together with the greatest forces of Daring Bare-back Riders, Accomplished Acrobats, Classic Gymnasts, Comical Clowns, Slack Rope Vaulters, Posture Masters, Equilibrists, Volantiers, Tumblers and Pandulines. Ever brought together in this country involving a greater expenditure for salaries than is incurred by any four travelling companies, and embracing more first class Artists than can be found in any Circus in the World. First season in America of Conrad's TROUPE OF PERFORMING DOGS!

From London and Paris. The largest and best stud of beautiful and highly trained PERFORMING HORSES AND PONIES

And the most brilliant wardrobe, trappings and appointments to be found in Europe or America. The Programme of performances arranged for the present season will be distinguished by novelty, variety and striking merit, including many entirely new acts, never before given in this country, with others that are original with and peculiar to the New York Circus, and can be witnessed in no other establishments all the vast resources of this magnificently appointed establishment will be called into requisition at every entertainment to furnish a display of Dashing Horsemanship and Classic Olympic Games!

Which for Novelty, Variety Elegance and exciting interest will be found infinitely superior to anything of the kind hitherto witnessed in America.

The Entire Mammoth Troupe

From the New York Circus, in Fourteenth Street, New York, will appear at every performance.

Prof. Charles Boswold's Opera Band,

From New York, accompanies the Troupe.

This company travels entirely by railroad, on special trains chartered for the purpose, and consequently the performers and horses come into the arena fresh and active, instead of being jaded and worn down by wearisome night travel over rough roads.

No Catchpenny Side Shows

Are allowed with this Establishment.

Admission 50 Cents. Children under 10 years, 25 cents. No standing Room. Seats for all. Doors open at 2 and 7. Grand Entrance at 2 and 7 P. M.

50 Tickets for sale at a

ST. ALBANS, VT.

At the present time there is much competition among Life Insurance Companies, and many agents are far too regardless of the truth, in statements when soliciting for risks, hence it is all important for persons intending to insure their lives, to insure only with agents whom they know to be reliable, again it is always most satisfactory for parties assured to have their risks with Local Agents, then there is no difficulty or danger of loss in transmitting premiums. Persons intending to insure their lives will find it for their advantage to see the agent of the Guardian Mutual before insuring elsewhere.
